A Few Words from the Hon. George W. Julian.

The Hon. George W. Julian, having become convinced that Samuel J. Tilden is the only man who can carry out the measures promised by the platforms of both parties, cut loose the slender tie that bound him to the Republicans, and is now doing his best to assist in the noble work of Reform. In a speech delivered at Indianapolis on the 26th of August, and published in the Courier-Journal, he gave the following reasons for supporting the Democratic rather than the Republican nominee:

But now, gentlemen, having shown by irresistible proofs that the Liberal movement of 1872 was justified by facts, and called for by the times, and that the Republican party, instead of retracing its steps and recovering its lost estate, has steadily gravitated farther and farther from its primal integrity, it may still be argued that Gov. Hayes will cut the ugly thread of history from behind it and launch it grandly on a new and blessed departure. Believing as I do, that the age of miracles has passed, I find myself compelled to reject this view. I am acquainted with Gov. Hayes, and believe him to be honest and patriotic, and most gladly and cordially would I support him if any Republican could explain to me how his accidential selection at Cincinnati can make saints out of the distinguished sinners who are the recognized leaders and managers of the party now, as they were four years ago. If you place the hat of an honest man on the head of a rogue will the roguery instantly depart? Every one has heard of the story of Fortunatus. He had a wishing hat, which relieved him of the expense and labor of travelling. By placing this hat on his head and wishing himself at a given place he straightway found himself there. Who would not join in building a monument to the sorely-needed genius who could manufacture a Presidential hat that would enable Gov. Hayes, by a simple wish, to change the nature of Morton and Cameron, and Butler, and Clayton, and Boss Shepherd, and Babcock, and Brother-in-law Casey, and the rest of the unbaptized crew who are taxing their wits and pouring out their money to secure his election, and will darken the air about the Executive mansion on the 4th of March, if he should succeed? Such a hat, I am free to confess, would make Gov. Hayes a pretty respectable President, and he would be able to take up the question of Reform and dispose of it with tolerable success. Unfortunately, no such head-gear can be found, while the great leader of the party in Indiana, and the right-hand man of the Administration, tells us the party has no need of it, and that the men who ask for reform are worse criminals than the thieves they wish to expose and punish. Here is the ugly knot which Liberal Republicans, and a good many other Republicans, desire to see united. Can you obtain the command of a piratical craft by simply changing the figure-head of the vessel? You must expel the pirates and put an honest crew in possession. This is the truth in a nutshell, and George William Curtis himself admits it. His cry is "Reform within the party," which he is shouting along the lines as he did four years ago, as if utterly unmindful of the fact that under this battle-cry our civil service has become as foul and feculent a system of official huckstering and political prostitution as our thoroughly debauched party politics could make it. But he is not blind, like Senator Morton, to the need of reform, and he tells us in Harper's Weekly that the only hope of the party lies in the power to persuade the people that it is not hopelessly corrupt. He frankly confesses that reform is only possible by throwing overboard the Grant leaders and trained corruptionists who have brought the party into disgrace. In all soberness I ask, is this possible? Have the Republican masses, after their long and patient service under the party yoke, the courage and virtue to take their old leaders by the throat? Will the party chiefs I have named meekly and penitently take the back seats, while honest and stainless men come to the front? The man who believes all this must have allowed his common sense to pack its baggage. The Grant leaders would reign in any conceivable political hell, rather than serve in the heaven of honest government. In the manipulation of caucusses and conventions they have long been masters. They are journeymen and experts in the work of politics as a trade. They have reduced plunder and pelf to a science and the greed of clutch to a fine art. Nothing can be more certain than that such a reform as would completely dislodge these leaders, and put such men as Bristow and Adams in their places, would be, in fact, the creation of a new party. It would have to be preceded by a general disintegration, and it would be quite as absurd to consider it the same party which has ruled the country since Grant came into power, as it would have been to treat the Republican party of 1856 as identical with the old Whig party, which has gone down to its dishonored grave. The idea, therefore, of making the Republican party the instrument of self-purification, is not only morally but logically absurd. A party once thoroughly corrupt has lost the power to reform itself. Devils are not inclined to cast out devils, and could scarcely be trusted with the business if they should offer their services; and it is because I entertain these views, and cannot escape their force, that I sincerely desire to see the machinery of the Republican party battered into fragments, and the way thus opened for a re-formation of parties on the living questions of the hour, unembarrassed by the momories of the past.

THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION.—Article 14, Section 4, of the Constitution reads as follows: "The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States, nor any State, shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void." The above provision of the Constitution forever disposes of the pretense that there are any persons in United States who expect to secure the payment of the war debt of the Southern Confederacy.

Our New York Letter.

NEW YORK, September 10th.

The transactions which are taking place in our State are necessarily occupying a considerable amount of attention, not only here, but all over the country. Our State Convention met and did the very best thing that it possibly could have done, in choosing Horatio Seymour as its candidate for the Governorship. The condition of the nominee's health prevented his acceptance of the nomination, and the Convention is reconvened for next Wednesday. The cause of Reform all over the country is helped by the action of the Convention. As the representative of the Democratic party in this State, which, in its turn, represents the same party throughout the Union, it placed itself before the country as the firm defender of the people's rights, and the staunch supporter of Tilden and Hendricks, to whom the people look to lead them on to victory over the disreputable elements which have disgraced the administration of their affairs under the Grant regime. It united all the opposing influences which were at work within the party, and presents it to-day a united phalanx marching forward with its numerous allies, bearing aloft the Standard of Reform, and resolved to plant that spotless ensign over the National citadel, when the term of its present occupiers has expired.

The people look upward and forward with hope and cheerfulness, for they see that the day of their deliverance is drawing near. The good sign comes to us from the battle-fields of Alabama, and it is borne upon the breeze from the Green Mountains of Vermont. Even into these apparently impregnable fastnesses has the current of public opinion which is sweeping over the country found its way, and the State which has never yet but once cast its vote for a Democratic President shows signs that she is waking up to the iniquities of the evil times that have fallen upon us. Even Wheeler is obliged to acknowledge that his exhibition of the bloody shirt was not as effectual as he intended.

We have now before us the text of our inglorious Attorney-General, and by it we may see how thoroughly debasing are the influences which are brought to bear upon all who come in contact with Grant and his infamous Cabinet. The South is to be put thoroughly at the mercy of the lowest and most degraded of the carpet-bagging tools who have been sent to her for the purpose of keeping alive all the animosities of the late war, and inciting the very disturbances which may be the means of calling into requisition the new and dangerous authority which has been relegated to them. If these vile mercenaries, these bloodhounds of our debauched rulers, be allowed their sway in one section, and are successful in holding that section by the throat so that it cannot give free expression to its will in November next, it will not be long before we see them let loose over the whole country.

We cannot be too earnestly alive to the dangers which would follow the advent of a Hayes administration. The very men who have brought all the present distress upon the country are pursuing every evil design they can concoct to perpetuate their power. They know that they have outraged every feeling of patriotism and of decency that swells the breasts of the people, and they have determined that, if possible, these sentiments shall be smothered and the people trodden under foot. It will not be, however. The evil that they have planned will fall upon their own heads. Their iniquities are well known and the effects thoroughly appreciated. The country has been plundered, cheated and disgraced as long as its inhabitants can endure it. They have before them, in Tilden and Hendricks, two men whom they know they can trust to lead it back to honor and prosperity. To these, their chosen candidates, they intend to confide their interests, and they will not brook any interference with their purposes, and hard will it go with those who make attempts to override their will.

The "Chronicle" Gibbeted by the "Monitor"

In response to the falsehood of the Chronicle that the Catholic Church has a latent policy which will ultimately be developed to "control the politics of the country," the Monitor says: "The Catholic Church has no such purpose, nor has it any policy in any way allied or in connection with politics. Its purpose and mission is to let politics severely alone, and to teach obedience to the constituted authorities; and this it does. Its prelates and priests and laymen, as citizens, are free to believe and vote, politicaly, the same as any others, as they please: and do not admit or tolerate the right of any, high or low, to interfere with them, or to dictate to them in respect to that highest prerogative of the citizen. The Catholic Church was never before so strong in the United States as it is today. But we challenge its worst enemy to adduce a particle of testimony to show that it has, in any respect, sought to "control the politics of the country". It forbids its priesthood to engage in active politics, and absolutely intedrics them from public offices of a political character. Who ever heard of a Catholic priest as a candidate for the Legislature or for Congress? Yet how many instances can be pointed out of clergymen of other religious denominations either as candidates or as incumbents for these and other political offices. And, let the Chronicle answer, candidly and fairly as we answer its interrogrrory, is it not true that such is the spirit of proscription against Catholics throughout the land simply to proclaim the fact that a candidate for any public position before the people is a Catholic, is quite sufficient of itself to array an uncommon opposition to him, if not actually to defeat him? Hence, in proportion to their numbers there are fewer Catholics in the elective or appointed public offices in the Union than of any other faith or belief; and unless the Chronicle can show that the Catholics, in the proportion of, say one to ten, when in office are likely to "control the politics of the country," and to subvert the Government, it will be obliged to confess its error and its injustice in respect to them."

The New York "Tribune" on Governor Tilden.

The New York Tribune, the ablest, fairest and most dignified of all the journals supporting the Administration candidates, condemns, in terms forcible and just, the course of its Republican cotemporaries in their scandalous and notoriously unfounded assaults upon the personal character of Governor Tilden. It says:

"Many of the editors who, during the past two or three years, have diligently rebuked the spirit of irreverence and recklessness which criticised Senator Conkling for appearing as counsel for large corporations in cases against the Government have had their feelings outraged by the discovery that Mr. Tilden, when a private citizen, acted as attorney for other large corporations and obtained large fees for his professional services. And really there is something almost as unreasonable in finding fault with Senator Conkling for taking large retainers against the Government which pays him his salary as there is in a private citizen, a lawyer like Mr. Tilden, charging large fees for his services. It is more dreadful when the fact is considered that Senator Conkling is a Republican and above criticism, and Mr. Tilden a Democrat, who must necessarily do wrong. People who are longing for a lively campaign, and especially those Republicans who have been fearful that their organs had said so much about the indecency of the attacks upon private character that they would feel a little delicacy about opening up on Tilden, will be encouraged by the fact that the organs referred to have calmly set aside their scruples for the campaign and are now engaged in a rattling discussion of Mr. Tilden's personal habits. They have reached the conclusion that the Governor was very drunk when he received the news of his nomination, and that whoever says he was not must be a false-hearted wretch and malignant liar. There have been some things said in the past four or five years in depreciation of this line of discussion, particularly when it led in the direction of Washington and persons in authority, but the organ says that Governor Tilden has threatened an "aggressive campaign," and they distinctly announce their intention to "give him enough of it."

These things are full of promise for the able and patriotic editors upon whom it devolves to fire the popular heart. They call all their faculties into play, and give them work in a field peculiarly and entirely their own. And yet there is a possibility—voters are getting to be "mighty uncertain"—that all this clean and wholesome argument may produce a reaction, and that Tilden will gain more votes than he will lose by being attacked in this manner. How many votes will be turned against him by the absurd accusation that he has stolen railroads, or by the still more absurd charge that he was intoxicated when he received the news of his nomination? These are falsehoods too transparent and too mean to affect votes, except as they excite disgust for the men and the party responsible for them.

MILITARY OPPRESSION.—The condition of the Southern States is a standing manance to the liberties of the whole country. It may be said that we are talking about things which can never happen, but it is a fact taught by all history that one portion of a land cannot, for any length of time, quietly assent to the military usurpation of another portion, without itself eventually falling under the same oppressive sway. It behooves the North, the East, and the West, if they wish to preserve their constitutional rights and liberties, without the further shedding of blood, to at once demand that the heel of despotism shall be removed from the neck of the South. This cannot be done by the lection of Hayes in November, for his election means a continuance of the present Administrative leaders, with all their infamies and illegalities. It can only be done by the election of Tilden, whose advent to power means a restoration of justice and protection to all, in every section of the land. The cry that the issues of the late war would be disturbed by the restoration of the Democratic party to power, is false and infamous. Those issues are settled beyond any possibility of resuscitation, and are accepted as settled by all but the Republican demagogues and traitors who strive to make political capitol out of them, and are therefore continually disturbing them, and flourishing them aloft, to inflame the passions and raise the hand of race against race, so that, perchance, they may cause the flow of human blood, through which they can wade to a further period of their infamous and degrading sway. Let the people so cast their ballots in November next, that the bayonet shall forever go out of use, as a political agent in a country whose great boast is in the freedom and equality of all its citizens.

GOOD TEXT FOR CAMPAIGN SPEECHES.—The following statement of facts condensed into this shape, by the New York World, is a good text for this campaign: "During eight years of President Grant's Administration the net ordinary expenses of the Government have fallen at the rate of $4,000,000 a year, about one per cent. annually. In a single year the Democratic House of Representatives has reduced the net ordinary expenditure of the comming year by $31,000,000, equal to the total reduction during the whole of President Grant's Administration. The House of Representatives has accomplished this in the face of the Senate, in the face of the President, in the face of 90,000 office-holders. During seven years of Republican control in the State of New York, from 1860 to 1867, the Republican party increased the State tax from $5,440,000 to $12,647,000 and in the last year of Republican control the tax rose to $15,727,482. Under a single year of Gov. Tilden this tax has been reduced to $8,268,000, the tax of 1866. In one session the Democratic House has equaled Republican economy during eight sessions. In one year Gov. Tilden has repressed the extravagance and reduced the taxation of the Republican party to the figures of ten years ago. If the country will put Gov. Tilden at one end of Pennsylvania avenue and a Democratic House at the other end, it will double these results. It will gain the lightest taxation since the war broke out and the most rigorous economy the country has seen."

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

The Democrats caaried Bennington, Vermont for the first time in eighteen years.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens is a candidate for re-election to Congress from Georgia.

The N. Y. Sun and World declare that the election in Vermont shows Democratic gains.

Ex-Governor D. P. Lewis, of Alabama, elected Governor by the Republicans in 1872 and defeated by Houston in the election of 1874, has written a letter favoring the committing of the administration of the General Government to Tilden and Hendricks.

Of the nineteen German papers in Iowa, only four of them support Hayes and Wheeler, and with one exception, that of a neutral paper at Waverly, all the others are for Tilden and Hendricks.

Radicals claim that Hayes has a better record in the last war than Tilden. Well, remarks the Peoria, Ill., Democrat, we are not hunting now for good generals in the last war. It is the present war on official thieves in which the people are interested, and in this war the record of Tilden is the brightest of any in the whole nation, and in which Hayes has no record whatever, as he has never enlisted in the present war at all.

Let Grant take his heavy hand off the South, says the N. Y. Herald. Of our soldiers we may say to him as Richard the III said to Stanley: "What do they in the South when they should serve there country in the West?" Why should Mississippi be strongly garrisoned while troops are wanted to fight Sitting Bull in Dakota and all that region which is now threatened with a long, cruel, and possibly a disastrous war?

For ten years past the aggregate taxation for canals in the State of New York has been $22,-796,156.46, averaging $2,279,615 a year. In 1874 the tax for canals was $2,537,819.04. In 1876 the tax for canals is nothing, Gov. Tilden having demonstrated that none was needed, yet the canals were never kept in better order.

Ex-Congressman John M. Ashly, of Ohio, known as the "great impeacher" in the days of President Johnston, announces that he supports Tilden and Hendricks. He has been one of the strongest Radicals in Northern Ohio.

A Radical in Peoria received a letter from his father, residing in New York, and who, also, is a Radical, in which letter the father says to the son: "Vote for Tilden this Fall. On our farm, last year, we had to pay one hundred dollars taxes. This year we have to pay but fifty dollars." The son as well as the father, will vote for Tilden.

Sigel says that the "home guards" are taking entirely too much credit on themselves for suppressing rebellion. Hooker says "we fought for the Union, not that politicans should rob and pillage the Treasury of the nation."

The New York Sun says all the information from disinterested sources, and from those who have mixed among the plain people, is that the revolution now silently going on will far exceed that of 1840, and elect Gov. Tilden by a greater popular vote than was ever given to any former President.

The stream of negro importation through the Radical agency has already commenced pouring into Indiana. Scarcely a day passes that the Indianapolis Sentinel does not hear of white laborers being turned off to make places for these negroes imported to vote the Radical ticket. The Radicals intend to import from 15,000 to 20,000.

The most that the partizans of Hayes hope to do by the bayonet is to give four Southern States to him which would otherwise go to Tilden, and the recent order is a confession that Hayes cannot, on a fair discussion, carry enough Northern and Western States to allow these four Southern communities to vote as they please.

The Chicago Times hits the nail on the head when it says that Senator Morton is an "ingrained demagogue and wholly unprincipled hypocrite."

The Radical party, in almost every instance where it has had opportunity or necessity to take a position upon this question, has placed itself in opposition to "the liberty of individual conduct unvexed by sumptuary laws." The German, who is "liberty-loving," and who does like to be "unvexed by sumptuary laws," will not overlook those points.

The Democratic platform says: "We denounce the policy which discards the liberty-loving German and tolerates a revival of the coolie trade in Mongolian women imported for immoral purposes, and Mongolian men held to servile labor contracts."

A German Tilden and Hendricks Club, numbering 651 votes, the most of whom are Radicals, and voted for Hayes last Fall, has been formed in Cleveland, Ohio. It strikes terror to the cohorts of Radicalism.

One of the most glorious reforms that will be accomplished through the election of our Uncle Samuel, will be the ridding the Navy Department of that abominable incubus, Geo. M. Robeson. He is perhaps the meanest and foulest representative of Grantism extant.

Charles Francis Adams has been nominated by the Democrats of Massachusetts for Governor, and Governor Gaston for Lieutenant-Governor. The New York Times denounces this nomination as a Tilden trick, but acknowledges that it is a strong ticket. To get good men into office and bad ones out, is precisely the sort of "tricks" Mr. Tilden is up to.

The New York Herald has sent a correspondent to Indiana, who writes: Blujeenz Williams and the entire Democratic and Liberal Republican State ticket will be elected by 10,000 to 16,000 majority. The Second, Third, Sixth, Seventh and Twelfth districts are conceded to the Democrats; the Fifth and Eleventh to the Republicans; the First, Fourth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth, doubtful, with probabilities as follows:—First, Fourth and Ninth, Democratic; Tenth and Thirteenth, Republican, and Eighth, Independent.

When any one expresses doubt about Tilden's ability to carry New York, the Syracuse Courier refers them to the election returns of 1874.

Grant says he will see that Louisiana is carried for Packard, and that several other States of the South must be saved to the Radiaal party. He intends to accomplish this purpose through the military powers of the bayonet.

The reformer who overthrows a Tweed, breaks a canal ring and reduces State taxation $8,000,000 a year, may to some people appear a sham, but for us, such shams are the realities he may highly value.

Mark M. Pomeroy, the redoubtable "Brick," supliments his Democrat with a campaign paper which is called the Great Campaign, and will be issued weekly until November 14. It supports Cooper and Carey.

Hon. J. K. Luttrell challenges Mr. McKenna, his opponent, to meet him on the stump, and he will divide time and pay all the expenses for the privilege of a joint discussion on the issues of the campaign.

A Self-Condemned Party.

How true it is that in many cases those who make the loudest professions of honesty, purity of character and correctness of purpose, are in fact the most dishonest, the most corrupt in their practices, and the most mercenary in their motives. If this was ever true of any party or body of men it is true of the present leaders of the Republican party, and especially does it apply to the Republican party of California and of Yolo county.

The principles, objects and practices of political parties at the present day are represented through their respective newspaper organs in every county sufficiently populous to sustain a paper; and almost invariably where there is an organ representing one party in any locality there is also one in the interest of the opposing party. It is so in Woodland. THE DEMOCRAT, though not owned by, subservient to, nor in any way governed by the Democratic party, yet it is conducted in the interest of that party, because its editor and publisher is a Democrat and believes the success of the Democratic party and the application of its principles in the administration of the Government to be the best means of promoting the greatest good of the greatest number of our countrymen; in which course it has certainly been consistent during the last seven years—the term of its present management. The Yolo Mail, the organ of the Republican party of this county, was started several years ago as a Republican paper, and supported the Republican or Administration party with what power it possesses. Now, to bring to the minds of Republicans some things which their organ, the Mail, has said of their party and the men composing it within the last two years, we publish below a few extracts taken verbatim from its columns. Read them, and then determine for yourselves if the Yolo Mail told the truth when it published these extracts, or whether it tells the truth now in its flat contradictions of what it then stated, or if, indeed, a paper that so flatly contradicts itself—which blows hot or cold to suit any and all occasions, telling the "plain unvarnished truth" and exposing the "rottenness" and "corruption" of its party and party leaders at one time, and at another time playing the part of the fawning, hypocritical sycophant and besliming with fulsome laudation those whom it erstwhile anathematized in the strongest terms at its command; determine whether such a paper is to be believed at all in any of its statements. Here are a few of the extracts of the character mentioned:

From the Yolo Mail, Jan. 15th, 1874.

"You are right when you say that the Republican party is too rotten to tie to."

March 26th, 1874.

"The Jackson motto, 'To the victors belong the spoils,' enforced in the face of a solemn protest by the people, has withered the laurels that wreathed the brow of President Grant when he closed the duties of a first term. But one short year and that which was honest and glorious has been overshadowed by a few acts in opposition to the popular will. The party which supported him has become rotten and debased."

"It would not do for one party to hold power too long. The Republican party have had it long enough in the nation."

June 4th, 1874.

"PARTY PURITY.—We do not know but that the regenerated Democracy is about as pure as any party. The usual exodus of rotten political hucksters from a party when its power is on the wane has taken place long ago, and they have become a rotten part and parcel of the party in power, and it is natural to suppose that what is left is quite genteel."

June 11th, 1874.

"For the past twelve years the honor and integrity of the nation has been at stake, and with an exhibition of loyalty and devotion unknown to the world before, the people of the United States have stood by the party and its leaders which have been known as its defenders. They have stood by them in their infancy, in their strength of manhood in their corruption; but as their work of restoring national confidence and comparative strength and tranquility has been accomplished, they do not propose to lie down with them in their hotbeds of corruption. The country has recovered from the shock of the civil strife only to find itself the subject of a more dangerous disease."

"To be saved from war and attendant evils was a question for armies, supported by money and sympathy, to solve. But now they find their honored servants feeding upon their flesh, stealing their treasures, sowing the seeds of corruption to such an extent that the people stop in their fealty to party astonished and bewildered at the magnitude of the robberies committed by high officials in high station."

"The Federal, the State, the county—in fact all political governments are nothing but rings in which are perpetrated the most outrageous and barefaced swindles, and corporations where combined capitalists unite for gain as usurers, or as monopolists in any business demanding public patronege, are but inquisitions seeking the last dollar from those who ahey rely on for support, being supremely arbitrary."

"To cleanse and purify, to check corruption, stop robbery, to avert bankruptcy, to perpetuate free institutions, to preserve the liberties of the people, and to destroy the monarchical spirit which so surely grows with a long continued lease of power, parties must have their hours of dissolution."

April 20th, 1876.

"There seems to have been a general system of robbery in all the departments of the Government, and but few have come out of the investigation with clean skirts."

April 27th, 1876.

"We, as Republicans, have reason to be ashamed of the men who have professed to be our friends, and have betrayed us. They have soiled their garments in public plunder and committed robberies with a reckless disregard of the nation, the party or the people."

"But have we not still greater enemies to dread than corruptionists? Aye, truly we have."

There, gentlemen Republicans, what do you think of your organ, and of your party, as here portrayed by your own chosen mouthpiece? Can you longer "lie down with it" or "tie to it?" From what we have here shown it is plain that the leaders and managers, at least, of the misnamed "Republican" party have no higher objects than to perpetuate their own hold upon the offices within the gift of the people. It is plain that the interests of the masses are secondary to the gratification of their own greed for gain at the taxpayers' expense. We advise you as friends to cut loose from them; to calmly cast about you and see if you cannot exercise that priceless boon, the elective franchise, more beneficially to yourself and your fellow-men by voting for other candidates than those of the Republican party at the coming election.

Our Campaign Offer.

We propose to those who are not taking the DEMOCRAT and desire to do so, to receive subscriptions for one year at the regular price, payable when Tilden and Hendricks are elected President and Vice-President of the United States. We have this much faith in the success of our nominees and the pure principles they represent. The DEMOCRAT will be up with the times in all that pertains to the campaign just opening, and will at the same time keep its readers posted upon the local and general news of the day. All who want the paper are invited to send in their names on this proposition.

SPEECHES OF BROWN, JOHNSON AND DEWITT Hon. W. B. C. Brown, State Controller of California, addressed the largest meeting of the campaign in Woodland on Thursday evening last. His speech occupied fully two hours in delivery, and was full of cutting truths as to the political corruptions of the time. Mr. Brown's arguments ought to have convinced every hearer that a change of Administration is not only necessary to the best good of the country, but is demanded by the people. Nothing but a lack of space prevents our giving a synopsis of Mr. B's remarks. He was followed by Judge James Johnson, who in a well chosen speech showed the inconsistency of Independents acting with the Republicans, and took occasion in noticing a dirty fling of the Mail at himself to impale the editor of that paper and hold him up before his audience in all his hideous political deformity by reading extracts from his paper as directly opposite to its present teaching as day is to night (some of which will be seen in another article.) The Judge's remarks told well. W. M. DeWitt, Esq., was then loudly called for, and notwithstanding it was near 11 o'clock, held the entire audience till almost midnight with candid, forcible remarks upon the condition of the country and the necessity of an entire change in the Administration. We have attended many public meetings in Yolo county, but never one where closer attention was paid to the speakers. There is a great earnestness in the demeanor of the people at this time which no amount of hyfalutin or misrepresentation on the part of opponents can disconcert or turn aside, and if we mistake not it augurs the success of the reform party—the true friends of the people, in November, by the triumphant election of those tried and true patriots, Tilden and Hendricks.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—Board met on Monday, members all present.

Supervisor Sims was appointed to purchase safe for the county.

Gordon Grant Road—Postponed till first day of next term.

Deeds of right of way for road on Sacramento river ordered recorded.

Contract for building levee below Washington awarded to Lee and Sill, at 45 cents per cubic yard. Bond to be filed in double amount of contract price. Sixty days to complete contract.

English Cut bids rejected and Board adjourned.

STATE MEETING.—The State Meeting of the Christain Church will be held at Yountville, Napa county, commencing on Friday, Sept. 22d, and continuing ten days. The Napa Reporter mentions the privileges disposed of as follows: Variety Store to J. S. Edington, for $350; ice cream stand to W. F. March, $131; restaurant to H. Grisby, for $50; hay yard to W. R. Sullinger, for $175; barber shop to Mr. Griske, for $16; boot black stand to W. T. C. Grisby, at $10; photograph gallery to Mr. Stegall, at $10; total amount $643.

DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Denson occupied the bench a short time on Monday last, but no important business was transacted. Court adjourned till Monday, Sept. 25th.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The officers of the Agricultural Society have favred us with a complimentary ticket to the State Fair, for which they will please accept thanks.

North Side Correspondence.

MISSOURI RANCH, Sept. 18th, 1876.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The harvest is past and the summer is ended; autumn is here with her fading flowers, and the winter of old age is crawling upon many of us. But "hope is an anchor to the soul both sure and steadfast, and reaches to that within the vail." To many of our citizens this has been a year of great anxiety, this being the one hundredth year of our American independence. Soon our Presidential election will be here; many anxious souls are awaiting a change in our government. It is hoped that better days will dawn upon the people of America; that they may be more firmly bound by the tie of brotherhood.

Many changes have taken place in our county during the last year; some of our neighbors have sold out their ranches—Mr. Nason, Geo. Wherry and J. B. Pockman—all of whom sold for good prices. Land is looking up. Wheat is not so high as farmers expected it would be, although there is an upward tendency. Farmers are becoming more economical. Brother farmers, take a little more care of everything you have got; prepare your land a little better and try to keep out of debt; and then prosperity will be on the side of the farmer.

The sale of G. W. Park came off Saturday.

There is considerable wheat in store along the railroad awaiting a higher price.

Charles F. Reed is plowing on his tule farm, running several plows. Charley is buying and shipping considerable grain this season; he is one of those rustling, stirring men who can't keep still; is ever experimenting on something in the way of farming, stock raising, etc. Success to all who are deligent in business, is my prayer. All is peace and quietude on this (north) side of Cache Creek. More anon,

INDEPENDENT FARMER.

ACCIDENT.—Last week's Winters Advocate says that Robert Belcher, of Cottonwood, met with a serious accident on Monday last. Mr. B. fell from his wagon and the wheel passed over his left leg, breaking it and also crushing his right foot. Dr. Bell was called to his assistance and set the fractured limbs.

FINE PEACHES.—Master Wood DeLong has left at this office a couple of the handsomest peaches we have seen. They are the clingstone variety, weigh between ten and eleven ounces each and measure from ten to eleven inches in circumfrence. They were raised at Newcastle, Placer county.

HO, CAUCATIANS!—There will be a grand rally of this order in Woodland on Friday evening next in front of the Capital Hotel, when the public will be addressed by P. S. Dorney, Supreme Chief of the Order in this State, and other speakers. The public are invited to be present.

SPEAKING AT WINTERS.—Hon. Frank Ganahl will speak to the people at Winters on the 29th. Mr. Ganahl is one of the Presidential Electors on the Democratic ticket. He is a fluent and instructive talker and should have a large audience wherever he goes in the campaign.

THE INDIAN WAR.—A report of a battle with the Indinns has come over the wires in which it is represented that a detachment of Crook's command had surprised and distroyed an Indian village killing and routing the savages.

THE NEXT ELECTIONS.—October 10th State elections will occur in Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Colorado. The result will doubtless have some bearing upon the Presidential election, which will take place Nov. 7th.

CREDITORS' SALE.—Every person who desires to purchase anything in the line of dry goods, clothing, etc., etc., should not fail to read the notice of the great creditors' sale of Levy & Oser.

NOTICE.—To the visitors attending the State Fair, and the public generally: We invite your attention to the fact that R. T. Brown & Co. are offering their entire stock of Men's and Boys' choice Clothing (for thirty days only) at wholesale rates, and Summer Clothing at cost. They are obliged to make this sacrifice in order to make room for goods awaiting their order. No greater inducements for the purchase of good Clothing was ever offered in the City of Sacramento, as they have a very large and select stock. We hope our patrons and friends will call on them before making their purchases. They have a full line of Furnishing Goods, Hats, Trunks, Valises, and in fact everything found in a first-class Clothing House. Their store, the American Clothing House, R. T. Brown & Co., proprietors, is located at 146 J Street, between Fifth and Sixth. 43

NEW PATENTS—Through Dewey & Co., Patent agents, San Francisco, we receive the following advance list of U. S. Patents, granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz: Joseph Britton, S. F., turn-tables for endless traction ways; Timothy Carroll, Anaheim, Cal., tree transplanters; Geo. O. Leonard, Red Bluff, methods of setting hair triggers of rifles, etc., Frank J. Symmes, S. F., protectors for chandeliers; Thirsy L. Wadsworth, Sacramento, (executrix of Wadsworth, deceased,) machines for compacting loose granular sugar into cubes; John Winterburn, Cambria, Cal., ore roasting furnaces.

FOR GOVERNOR.—The Democratic Convention of New York, on being called together again in consequence of Gov. Seymour's declination because of ill health, nominated Lucius Robinson, present and for two previous terms Controller of the State. In 1861 he was elected by over 100,000 majority, and was re-elected in 1863. Last Fall he was again elected to the same office by a large majority. The Examiner says he is a Democrat bred in the school of Silas Wright, W. L. Marcy, Jefferson and Jackson.

STATE TAX.—The State Board of Equalization have levied the State tax for the present year at 73 cents and 5 mills on each $100 of taxable property, divided as follows: General fund, 43 cents 9 mills; school fund, 23 cents 4 mills; interest and sinking fund, 6 cents 2 mills. The total valuation of property is $594,620,231. There is an increase in the levy over last year, made necessary by the burning of the State Prison and other necessities.

WILL TALK TO US.—Hon. Frank Ganahl, one of the Democratic Presidential Electors, will address the people of Yolo county at Woodland on Thursday evening Sept 28th. He should have a rousing turn out of men of all parties to hear him, and ladies too.

The Kansas Republicans are deserting their party by the hundreds. Ex-U. S. Senator Ross, Hon. W. N. Allen, Hon. W. H. Rossington, and Hon. J. A. Moss, all formerly prominent in the Republican party, recently addressed the people at a Tilden and Hendricks ratification meeting.

A correspondent asks: Was the New York Tribune sincere when it said: "Now the Republican party, as such, has given the country the disgraceful Administration which all Americans contemplate with shame." We think it was, for that paper has occasionally a fit of honesty.

Among the speakers for Tilden and Hendricks in Indiana, are Geo. W. Julian, Jas. R. Doolittle, Lyman Trumbull, Gen. Shields, ex-Senator Tipton, John F. Farnsworth, Austin Blair, Gov. Curtin and Gen. Sigel—all heavy guns and well known Republicans.

A meeting of the American Colored Conservative Club of New Orleans was broken up by a mob of white Radicals a short time since and the members compelled to disperse. It is needless to add that the assailants on this occasion were of the Hayes-Grant pattern.

History of the Republican Party—No 2.

There was formed in 1854 a political organization which named itself the "Republican party." I have already said that the notes of preparation for that event had been sounding for many years. That preparatory process I will now aim more fully to consider.

James Monroe seems to have always been popular. Even in 1816 he received for the Presidency 183 electoral votes as against 34 cast for Rufus King. And his popularity, so considerable in the beginning, increased greatly. So much so was this the fact that in 1820 he received 231 electoral votes out of a total of 232. Partyism was blotted out, for all the people were satisfied with Monroe. That happy period has been subsequently referred to as the era of good feeling.

In 1824 Andrew Jackson, John Quincy Adams, William H. Crawford and Henry Clay were candidates for the Presidency. The electoral vote stood, for Jackson 99, for Adams 84, for Crawford 41, and for Clay 37. The popular vote stood, for Jackson 152,899, for Adams 106,321, for Crawford 47,265, and for Clay 47,037. As no one of the candidates had received a majority of the whole number of the electoral votes, the duty of electing a President was devolved upon the House of Representatives. The choice of that body fell upon John Quincy Adams. There was a great number of persons who, though they had not, in the first instance, favored Jackson's aspirations for the Presidency, thought that the popular will, as manifested by the election of 1824, should have been respected by the House of Representatives, and as a consequence, became his active and zealous adherents.

In 1828 Mr. Adams was again a candidate for the Presidency, and Jackson was the only opposing candidate. The friends of Adams called themselves "Adams," or "Administration Men," and the friends of Jackson called themselves "Jackson men," and no man said of himself that he was or was not a "Democrat." But in this connection it is proper to remark that, of the old men who had been voters in the year 1800, such as had voted for John Adams were very generally for his son, and such as had voted for Thomas Jefferson, were very generally for Jackson.

Jackson was successful, receiving 178 electoral votes as against 87 cast for Adams. He was again a candidate in 1832, and received 219 electoral votes, as against 49 cast for Clay, 11 for Floyd, and 7 for Wirt. A few years afterwards the opponents of President Jackson assumed the name of "Whig," and his friends that of "Democrat." In my judgment accuracy requires me to say that the present Democratic organization had its commencement in 1828, with Andrew Jackson for its first leader. If I am right, it will be conceded that it had a gallant chieftain to begin with.

It and the Whig party never made any national issue with each other upon the subject of slavery. On the contrary, the most distinguished Whig and Democratic leaders cordially co-operated with each other with the view of preventing, as far as they could, the agitation of the slavery question in the halls of Congress. Such co-operation resulted in the compromise measures of 1850.

From the year 1828 to the year 1852, both inclusive, the Democratic party succeeded in five out of seven Presidential elections. In 1852, Franklin Pierce, the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, carried 27 out of the 31 States of the Union. Of those States, 14 were Northern and 13 Southern States. The great States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois were among the Northern States which voted for Pierce. The Northern States stood 14 for Pierce to 2 for Scott. It will hence be seen that the Whigs, in the last National contest they had with the Democracy, were not only beaten but overwhelmed in the States of the North. They fared a little but not much better in the South. There the vote stood thirteen States for Pierce to two for Scott.

It was now apparent that the whole country had acquiesced in the Democratic National policy. It was evident that the Whigs, north and south, could not agree upon some new national platform in support of which there would be a chance of success. In 1852, both the Whig and the Democratic parties were pledged to maintain the compromise measures of 1850. The combined popular vote of those parties that year aggregated 2,962,082 votes. John P. Hale, in the same year received only 157,296 votes, being less than one vote out of every eighteen of the whole number of votes cast. The Whigs of the South were as much interested in slave property as the Democrats were. They would not, therefore, place themselves in antagonism with the institution of slavery. It must, moreover, have then been apparent, that if that institution should seriously be assailed, the capitalists of the South would be a unit in its defence.

The North was numerically stronger than the South. A party which could control the entire North, could through that locality govern the Union. The North could not be united except through some question which would appeal to northern interests, passion, or prejudices. Northern inrerests, passions, and prejudices, could all be enlisted in behalf of free labor in the territories. If slavery should be kept from going into any territory, in no territory of the United States would free labor be under the necessity of competing with slave labor.

In 1854, the Act known as the Missouri Compromise was repealed, and the territories of Kansas and Nebraska were organized on what were called the principles of popular sovereignty. Now was presented the golden opportunity for the formation of a new party. An opportunity was given for the extension of slavery. It would be claimed, with a show of plausibility, that the compromise measures of 1850 had been disturbed. The Whig leaders of the North could advocate the exclusion of slavery from the territories without incurring the odium of being considered fanatics. The Abolitionists could join in the movement, hoping that they would ultimately be able to control it.

A Fine Thing for the Teeth.

Fragrant SOZODONT is a composition of the purest and choicest ingredients of the Oriental vegetable kingdom. Every ingredient is well known to have a beneficial effect on the teeth and gums. Its embalming or antiseptic property and aromatic fragrance makes it a toilet luxury. SOZODONT removes all disagreeable odors from the breath caused by catarrh, bad teeth, etc. It is entirely free from the injurious and acrid properties of tooth pastes and powders which destroy the enamel. One bottle will last six months.

SPOTS upon the Sun do not visibly diminish its brilliancy, but spots, pimples or blotches upon the face, neck or arms seriously detract from female beauty. They may, however, be completely removed by the daily use of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP.

MISSIONARIES and others sojourning in foreign lands should not fail to take with them a good supply of "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment." It is the most reliable medicine for all purposes there is in the world.

CONTAGIOUS diseases, such as horse ail, glander, etc., may be prevented by the use of "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders." Persons traveling with horses should take note of this.

Be Wise in Time.

Prompt attention to small ailments is the part of wisdom. Not only does a trifling disorder often culminate in a dangerous disease, but those ailments which many are accustomed to regard as "trifles" are so far from being so, that they harrass the entire system, by sympathy, to a degree which very seriously jeopardizes the general health. Take for example an irregular habit of body, which many persons are accustomed to neglect altogether. Into what deplorable confusion does it throw the entire alimentary region, disordering digestion, diverting the bile from its natural channel into the blood, and attenuating the vital current into a thin, watery, unnutritious liquid. If these are not serious consequences, we should like to know what are. Yet how many entail them upon themselves by neglecting to regulate their bowels when they are out of order.

The best corrective in the case above described, as well as in all others developing indigestive and constipated symptoms, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a mild but efficient laxative, which never gripes or otherwise distresses the patient, and at the same time that it yields relief from the special difficulty tones and invigorates the entire system. The Bitters are equally efficacious as a diuretic, promoting a healthy secretion and regular micturition of the urine, and soothing irritation of the bladder or the urethra. Intermittent and remittent fevers; nervousness, want of appetite, and local or general debility are likewise promptly remedied by this admirable medicinal stimulant and corrective, as efficacious as it is popular.

JOHN BREUNER, the big Furniture dealer of 166, 168 and 170 K Street, Sacramento, has just received four car-loads of the newest styles of furniture which he offers at the lowest prices ever given in this State. Grey hair-cloth parlor sets and elegant carpet lounges are sold at figures that are astonishingly low. See advertisement. 43

Reform Campaign Song.

Sam Tilden is a gentleman,
A true and honest man, sir,
And when we call for honest work,
He's just the chap to answer.
He represents the very truths
That we have all been drilled in.
And we could'nt have to lead us on,
A better man than Tilden.

The thieves and rogues have ruled the land,
And all the people swindled;
Expenses every year increase,
While revenues have dwindled.
'Tis time to drive the rats and mice
From out the Treasury buildin';
There's one can do the job complete,
And him we call Sam Tilden.

The Empire State, so proud and great,
Was on the verge of ruin;
With Tilden for its Governor
'Twas saved from such undoin',
Because the task of smashing "rings"
Needs work that he is skilled in,
The man we want for President
Is honest old Sam Tilden.

He drove out all official thieves,
And stopped their shameful plunder,
And the way he brought the taxes down
Made people shout with wonder.
So now we want the offices
With honest fellows filled in
And at their head are proud to place
That honest man, Sam Tilden.

The Bayonet in the Election.

Grant seized the first moment after the adjournment of Congress to show his hand; and the people of the country can see that it grasps a bayonet, the point of which is turned toward the Southern States.

It is a feeling not of alarm, but of indignation, that will be raised throughout the land by the military order that has been issued from the War Department to Gen. Sherman. It directs the General of the Army to hold all the available military force in readiness to be used for the support of the Fifteenth Constitutional Amendment, and for the punishment of those who may attempt to interfere with the rights therein guaranteed. It directs him to have the military force so distributed as to be able to act with promptitude; and it informs him that he will receive other instructions from time to time concerning this business.

The order means that ten or twelve thousand troops of the regular army are to be concentrated in the Southern States—in those of them which have been, or, without this order, would surely be, wrested from Grantism in November next. They will doubtless be stationed mainly in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama and South Carolina; and it is not improbable, remarks the New York Sun, that, before the election, the Southern Department will be put in charge of General Sheridan, who has had some experience in the kind of work that he will be called upon to perform.

It was very cunning in Don Cameron, Secretary of War, to resort to the pretext of basing this order on the resolution of Mr. Scott Lord, which was passed by the House of Representatives on the 10th instant, and received the vote of nearly all the Democratic members. He delayed its issue till one week after the passage of that resolution, and kept it back till one day after the adjournment of Congress. Why did he not issue it after receiving the resolution, or while yet Congress was in session? The trick is worthy of Grant himself.

As far back as the 2d of this month, the Sun warned Congress that it would be unsafe to adjourn, leaving a free opportunity for the exercise of unrestricted power in the hands of such a President as Grant. The warning is already more than justified. Grant and the Senate have lately been very anxious for the enlargement of the army; and it is now evident, as it has been all along, what object they had in view in this policy.

The House was weak enough, on the last day of the session, to assent to the Senate's demand for an increase of 2,500 men in the cavalry arm of the service. The pretence was that this additional force was needed for the Sioux war. It was not needed for that war, but for use in the Southern States during the Presidential election.

There is but one thing now to be desired, and that is, that this military interference of Grant may recoil upon the party for whose advantage it is intended.—Examiner.

The Schools.—The Democratic platform thus summarily disposes of the public school issue which the Republicans seek to force upon the country:

The first false issue is that with which they would enkindle sectarian strife, in respect to the public schools, of which the establishment and support belong exclusively to the several States, and which the Democratic party has cherished from their foundation, and is resolved to maintain without partiality or preference for any class, sect or creed, and without contributing from the Treasury to any. The second false issue is that by which they seek to light anew the dying embers of sectional hate between kindred people, once unnaturally estranged, but now reunited in one indivisible republic and a common destiny.

The arrogance of this attempt will the more fully appear when we remember that the Republican party never yet originated a single school system. When that party succeeded the Democracy in power it found the public school systems of the several States in as full operation and as free and unsectarian as they stand to-day. How easy would it have been for the Democracy to have neglected to establish public schools had they desired to; or to have placed them on a sectarian basis, if it had been under the control of sects. This nefarious attempt of the Radicals to fasten the charge of opposition to popular education on the Democracy is indeed a "false issue," too plainly seen to need refutation.

For Tilden.—Gideon Welles, Lincoln's Secretary of the Navy, is for Tilden; Ex-Governor Palmer, Lincoln's particular friend, and a gallant soldier, elected Governor of Illinois by the Republicans, is for Tilden; Chas. Francis Adams, the ablest of Lincoln's Foreign Ministers, is for Tilden; Ex-Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania, one of the war Governors upon whom Lincoln depended so much, is for Tilden; G. W. Julian, of Indiana, the settler's friend, and one of the founders of the Republican party, is for Tilden; Gen. G. B. McClellan, the ablest General the Federal forces ever had, is for Tilden; General W. S. Hancock, who fought so gallantly through the entire war, as a Major-General, is for Tilden. Considering that all these prominent actors in the late war are for Tilden, says the Colusa Sun, let any Republican who has ever made up his mind to act independent, ask himself if he is to be driven into the ranks to support those he admitted, a few months ago, were a set of dishonest men, merely for the reason that the cry of rebel is raised, and the bloody shirt used as a scare-crow for him?

The Liberal Republicans of New York, as in all the Western States, are nearly all for Tilden and Hendricks.

Centaur Liniments!

[Letter from a Postmaster.]

Antioch, Ill., Dec. 1, 1874.

"Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co.:

"My wife has, for a long time, been a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism. She has tried many physicians and many remedies. The only thing which has given her relief is Centaur Liniment. I am rejoiced to say this has cured her. I am doing what I can to extend its sale. * * * W. H. Ring.

This is a sample of many thousand testimonials received of wonderful cures effected by the Centaur Liniment. The ingredients of this article are published around each bottle. It contains Witch Hazel, Mentha, Arnica, Rock Oil, Carbolic, and ingredients hitherto little known. It is an indisputable fact that the Centaur Liniment is performing more cures of Swellings, Stiff Joints, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Lock-jaw, etc., than all other Liniments, Embrocations Extracts, Salves, Ointments, and Plasters now in use.

For Toothache, Earache, Weak Back, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions, it is admirable. It cures burns and scalds without a scar. Extracts poisons from bites and stings, and heals frost-bites and chilblains, in a short time. No family can afford to be without the Centaur Liniment, white wrapper.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is adapted to the tough skin, muscles and flesh of the animal creation. Its effects upon severe cases of Spavin, Sweeny, Wind Gall, Big Head and Poll Evil, are little less than marvellous.

Messrs. J. McClure & Co., Druggists, cor. Elm and Front streets, Cincinnati, O., say:

"In our neighborhood a number of teamsters are using the Centaur Liniment. They pronounce it superior to anything they have ever used. We sell as high as four to five dozen bottles per month to these teamsters."

We have thousands of similar testimonials. For Wounds, Galls, Scratches, Ring-bone, etc., and for Screw Worm in Sheep it has no rival. Farmers, Livery-men and Stock-raisers have in this Liniment a remedy which is worth a hundred times its cost.

Pitcher's Castoria!

Mothers may have rest and their babies may have health, if they will use Castoria for Wind Colic, Worms, Feverishness, Sore Mouth, Croup or Summer Complaints. It is entirely a vegetable preparation, and contains neither mineral, morphine, nor alcohol. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and neither gags nor gripes.

Dr. E. Dimoch, of Dupont, O., says:

"I am using Castoria in my practice with the most signal benefits and happy result."

This is what everyone says. Most nurses in New York City use the Castoria. It is prepared by Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co., 46 Dey St., New York, successors to Samuel Pitcher, M.D. jy27-3m1

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, DESIGNED TO COMMEMORATE THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE, OPENED MAY 10th, AND WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 10th, 1876. All the Nations of the world and all the States and Territories of the Union are participating in this wonderful demonstration, bringing together the most comprehensive collection of art treasures, mechanical inventions, scientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements, mineral specimens, and agricultural products ever exhibited. The grounds devoted to the Exhibition are situated on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and embrace four hundred and fifty acres of Fairmount Park, all highly improved and ornamented, on which are erected the largest buildings ever constructed,—five of these covering an area of fifty acres and costing $5,000,000. The total number of buildings erected for the purposes of the Exhibition is near two hundred. During the thirty days immediately following the opening of the Exhibition a million and a quarter of people visited it.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD,

THE GREAT TRUNK LINE

—AND—

Fast Mail Route of the United States,

Is the most direct, convenient and economical way of reaching Philadelphia and this great Exhibition from all sections of the country. Its trains to and from Philadelphia will pass through a GRAND CENTENNIAL DEPOT, which the Company have erected at the Main Entrance to the Exhibition Grounds for the accommodation of passengers who wish to stop at or start from the numerous large hotels contiguous to this station and the Exhibition, a convenience of the greatest value to visitors, and afforded exclusively by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is THE ONLY LINE RUNNING DIRECT TO THE CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. Excursion trains will also stop at the Encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry, at Elm Station on this road.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is the grandest railway organization in the world. It controls seven thousand miles of roadway, forming continuous lines to Washington, over which luxurious day and night cars are run from Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Columbus, Toledo, Cleveland, and Erie, without change.

Its main line is laid with double and third tracks of heavy steel rails upon a deep bed of broken stone ballast, and its bridges are all of iron or stone. Its passenger trains are equipped with every known improvement for comfort and safety, and are run at faster speed for greater distances than the trains of any line on the continent. The Company has largely increased its equipment for Centennial travel, and will be prepared to build in its own shops locomotives and passenger cars at short notice sufficient to fully accommodate any extra demand. The unequaled resources at the command of the Company guarantee the most perfect accommodations for its patrons during the Centennial Exhibition.

THE MAGNIFICENT SCENERY for which the Pennsylvania Railroad is so justly celebrated presents to the traveler over its perfect roadway an ever-changing panorama of river, mountain and landscape views unequaled in America.

THE EATING-STATIONS on this line are unsurpassed. Meals will be furnished at suitable hours and ample time allowed for enjoying them.

EXCURSION TICKETS, at reduced rates, will be sold at all principal Railroad Ticket Offices in the West, North-west and South-west.

BE SURE THAT YOUR TICKETS READ VIA THE GREAT PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE TO THE CENTENNIAL.

SOMETHING NEW

At 169, 171 and 177 K Street,

SACRAMENTO CAL.

AITKEN & LUCE

Make the following proposition to those who wish Monuments or Headstones, and who come to the City for the express purpose of selecting. We will pay the R.R. fare both ways when the distance and amount of purchase compare with the following table:

$50 00	Contract—	30	miles or less.
$75.00	"	40	" "
$100.00	"	50	" "
$250.00	"	75	" "
$500.00	"	150	" "
$1,000.00	"	300	" "

Thus giving purchasers the opportunity of making their selections, instead of dealing with inexperienced canvassers.

Cut this out and bring it with you, and after you have made your purchase, present it, and we will give you credit for your R. R. fare both ways.

We wish it distinctly understood that we work any kind of marble desired, and as low as the lowest.
